League Season Will Open With Great World's Pennant Winners Eclat, Including Auto Parade and Hoped-for Victory

ASEBALL today!

Get your tickets and follow the crowd.

At last the weather man, fearing the indignation of the populace if any of the severe cases of baseball fever terminated fatally, has consented to furnish a brand of sunshine which will allow sterling athletes to settle the momentous question whether Salt Lake or Helena has the better team.

Anyone who considers this question an unimportant one has not heard the arguments in the offices of lawyers, doctors, architects, dentists, business men and artisans.

It is the one big issue in Salt Lake today.

After 6 o'clock tonight Salt Lake will rejoice and Helena will availed nothing and the Highlanders won

There shall not be any alternative. The Skyscrapers must win this game today despite the fact that Manager "Blub" Irby is a good fellow and six pounds lighter than he was last year. When he sees the way Zion's classy ball players slaughter the offerings of his pitchers he will probably lose ten pounds more. Still, Irby is hard to convince, and he will not believe this until it is demonstrated to his satisfaction this afternoon at Cooley park.

Does anyone suppose that Dick Cooley would have gone to the expense of hirmould have gone to the game. There will be a brass band. The parade will start up State to South Temple, thence to Main and on to the game. Mayor Pfark is expected to pitch the first ball and some prominent fan will be wowld sure win and Buck said "Yes." EW YORK, April 23,-There was only one man in the world's champlons who solved Vaughn's delivery today. He was McInnes and he hit the tall southpaw for three-bagger and two singles, but it by a score of 3 to 0. Even Baker, the home-run maker, was off in his work and Vaughn struck him out in the first in-ning. Vaughn allowed only four hits and Morgan five. The Highlanders made their three runs in the first on a succession of infield errors and wild work by Pitcher Morgan. After that the game was very pretty, snappy fielding abounding. Thompson, the left fielder, ought to be the third out. The next time they come to bat, which, of course, ought to be in the second innings, the great and only Lussi of first-base tame will swing the willow. It is best to concede bim a safe hit, otherwise he might make a honser, but Dressen's quick way of throwing to first will get him before Killiay, the center fielder, atrikes out. The next man up for Helena will be either Irby or Donovan, but if both of them went to bat at once they couldn't hit Dressen. Haveratick, the second haseman, is labeled "dangerous," so it is possible be may get to first, but flaker, the catcher, will hardly bring him in, so there yeu sre. Just as easy! One, two, three all the way, but a few accidents are likely to intervene, preventing the same from being played in record time. Irby would not say last night whether he would pitch Mears. Boyd or Hatch. It will be a great game anyway unless Helena should happen to win, and the foregoing citation from that eminent authority, "Buck Weaver on Baseball," is proof enough for any jurist versed in the national game. Westver will be right there catching, too, where fans can see him and encourage him to fulful his promise, or was it a prophecy? At 2.15 o'clock this afternoon a long line of autos will be in front of the	Of course the fans will have reason to be proud of the Skyscrapers in their brand new suits—at least until the game begins. Colonel "Blub" Irby and his valiant warriors have planned their line of battie, and even wired to Helena last night that they were going to win, but the heat guess is that they will get what Blankenship gave Butte yesterday—7 to—and then they ought to consider themselves lucky. If Irby puts in "Vinegar Dick" Mears, as he is apt to do, one Inning of his pitching will be worth the price of admission. He has a windup like an alarm clock, and Baker's continual monologue for Mears never says anything. Baker is the orator of the team when Irby has a sore throat. The Skyscrapers lineup will be the familiar one of last year, except Buck Weaver belind the bat. Fans will quickly concede to Weaver the honor of being the heat thrower in the league. His headwork will take a little longer to make itself apparent to all, but he is a	Curbin, 7b 1 if 2 of Lewis, If. 0 1 0 0 0 0 Morgan, co. 1 1 4 1 2 Wagner as. 0 1 4 1 0 Henry, c. 1 0 5 1 0 0 0 Morgan, co. 1 1 4 1 2 Wagner as. 0 1 4 1 0 Henry, c. 1 0 5 1 0 Nun'aker, c 0 2 7 4 0 Groome, p. 0 2 0 5 3 *Hendrivon, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Totals 4 5 27 11 E Totals 2 5128 15 1 *Batted for Wood in ninth. LEAGUE BASEBALL IN OGDEN OPENS TODAY

McCloskey Gets Fred Clarke and Is Lining Up Formidable Team Against Great Falls.

Advices from Ogden late last night were that John McCloskey was fully prepared to do battle against last year's pennan winners, the Great Falls Union league team. After dark last night, when Ogden fana met in concluve, they decided that first base was a little weak, so they subscribed enough to buy Fred Clarke's release from Columbus and he will appeal on the initial suck today.

President W. H. Lucas, head of the Union league, will be at the Ogden open-ing. Last year he was in Sall Lake and next year he will go to some Montana

Ogden fans are thoroughly interested and they fully resilize the fact that Mc-Closkey is a manager capable of doing as much for the city in a baseball way as snyone could. Breanahan, McGraw and others not excepted, it ought to be a great battle in the Junction city today.
